

From Editor's Desk

Web site is the most powerful media to reach up to the end users in the hands of today's proactive librarians. Most of the Librarians are using this media in efficient manner. Azizur Rahman and M. Sadik Batcha in their article evaluated the content of select web site of libraries of women colleges in Delhi. Meghabat Singh, Akriti Sharma and Ravi Shukla attempted to describe the students' perceptions regarding online learning in the Covid-19 pandemic at the University of Jammu. SWAYAM and e-PG Pathshala are most popular Open Educational Resources amongst available ones. The accessibility results of these two Indian OER are described by Subhajit Panda and Rupak Chakravarty in their article.

Analytical study of publications of Library and Information Science listed in Indian Citation Index is carried out by Moutusi Basak and Sanku Bilas Roy in their article 'Landscape of Library and Information Science Research in India: An Analytical Study' Similarly, a bibliometric analysis of healthcare professionals' research performance in Tamil Nadu is done by Mohamed Idhris and Manuelraj Peter in their article. Mohd Akhter highlighted global research output on Covid-19 Vaccine on the basis of data retrieved from SCOPUS database. However, Iranna M. Shettar and Gururaj S. Hadagali studied the research output of National Institutes of Technology in India. Considering the SCOPUS database, a quantitative and qualitative analysis of research performed in institutes supported by the Department of Atomic Energy (DAE), Government of India is done by Deepjyoti Kalita. A bibliometric study on growth of Covid-19 literature in India and its neighboring countries is done by Arup Kumar Mondal through his article.

During the period of lockdown people all over the World were in their home living idly. Most of the students/researchers used this idle time in gaining knowledge through online library. A Bagavathi studied the online library user's behavior through the article 'A study on the User Behaviour with online libraries during Covid - 19 pandemic period'. Use and User study is the most important aspect of library. In view of this few articles are covered in this issue. Inderjeet Singh Maan and Surinder Singh Ghuman in their article explored the current status of use of library resources and services by the faculty and students of Guru Nanak College Budhlada. Moreover, awareness and use of e-PG Pathshala in the faculty of science and social science in Aligarh Muslim University is carried out by M. Masoom Raza, Abdul Moid, Md. Javed and Keshwar Jahan. Anupam Bhowmick attempted to study the awareness of activities of INFLIBNET among faculties, research scholars and library staffs of state and Deemed-to-be Universities in India.

A Subaveerapandiyam & Priyanka Sinha and Madan Lal & Brajesh Tiwari focused on the digital literacy through their articles 'Digital Literacy and Reading Habits of the Dmi-St. Eugene University Students' and 'Digital Information Literacy among Tribal in the Chhattisgarh: A study with special reference to rural areas of Kanker District' respectively.

In this issue, the Editorial Board attempted to cover the articles on Bibliometric study, Evaluation of website, Use and user study, User behavior as well as Digital literacy. I hope you all professionals will like this issue and will find it useful for research purpose.
